

Delineation.

Drawing Environmental Boundaries.

EAEH 2007

Friday, 29th June, 2007

Central Meeting Room 06, Christodoulou Rooms
The Open University, Milton Keynes.

PROGRAMME (updated 27-6-07).

10-15 Kate Showers, University of Sussex,

“Enlightenment Rivers and African Water Cycles: Encounters between European and Neo-European River Management and the African Continent, 1625-2007.”

10-55 Ruth Thomas-Pellicer, University of Surrey,

“The International Climate Change Regime & The Third Contradiction of Capitalism.”

11-35 Break

12-05 Darren Crook, University of Hertfordshire,

“Mountain Irrigation - Mounting irritation. The dividing up of land and water rights in Valais Canton from the 11th century to present.”

12-45 LUNCH

2-10 Raymond Smith,

“Dividing the waters. A brief historiography of British water pollution.”

2-50 Break

3-20 José Augusto Pádua, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro.

“European colonialism and tropical forest destruction in Brazil.”

4-00 Peter Brimblecombe, University of East Anglia,

“Environmental destruction and Macaulay’s image of the New Zealander.”

