

Resources, The Past and The Present.

EAEH 2006

Friday, 19th May, 2006,
Room 106, South West Building,
The Open University, Milton Keynes.
REVISED ROGRAMME.

10-10 Jouni Paavola, University of East Anglia,

“Interstate Water Pollution and Elusive Federal Water Pollution Policy in the United States, 1900-1948.”

10-45 Jan Oosthoek, University of Newcastle Upon Tyne,

“The use of historical fishing records: the case of the Forth estuary, 1700-1930.”

11-20 Break.

11-45 James Porter, King's College London,

“The co-production of hydrological practices and flood defence policy.”

12-20 Raymond Smith,

“Is the past a resource for modern water resource planning?”

12-55 Lunch.

2-10 Humphrey Southall, University of Portsmouth

“20th Century Land Utilisation Surveys as a source for 21st Century Land Use Policy.”

2-45 Erin Gill, University of Wales, Aberystwyth

“The Living Soil: Lady Eve Balfour's soil manifesto.”

3-20 Break.

3-45 Vimbai Kwashirai, University of Liverpool

“Contested Forest Ownership and Exploitation in Colonial Zimbabwe.”

4-20 Peter Brimblecombe, University of East Anglia,

“The growth in our understanding of the stratosphere.”

Web page at: <http://www.uea.ac.uk/~e490/eahh.htm>